render it the most important and substantial

Railroad enterprise now in propress in this Country. . Its superfority as an East and West route, and the promise of an immense and profitable trade awalting its completion, have drawn to it the at-tentien and co-operation of prominent Capital-ists and Railroad menof this city of sound indgment and known integrity, whose connection with it, together with that of eminent citizen and business men of Virginia and West-Virginia INSURES AN ENERGETIC, HONORA-BLE AND SUCCESSFUL MANAGEMENT.

The Road is completed and in operation from Richmond to the celebrated While Sulphur Springs of West-Virginia, 287 miles, and there remain but 200 miles (now partially constructed) to be completed, to carry it to the proposed termins on the Ohio river at, or near, the mouth of the Big Sandy river, 130 miles above Cincinnati, and 350 miles below Pittsburg.

Lines are now projected or in progress through Ohio and Kentucky to this point, which will con-
